The Cushing Terrell Experience

Our mission: to invent a better way of living. By integrating architecture, engineering, and design, we open the doors for transformative thought and enhanced creativity. We design systems and spaces that help people live their best lives and enjoy healthy, sustainable built environments. We find joy in uncovering thoughtful solutions for the people who work here, the people we work for, and the planet as a whole. Our broad range of specialized service offerings, global project locations, and a love for exploration, research, and discovery make each day a unique adventure.

Being an intern at Cushing Terrell was an incredibly hands-on, immersive experience where each and every one of my teammates was empowering, respectful, enthusiastic, and committed to my continued learning and success throughout my experience.
